Memory Developing memory skills in language learning. The ability to retain and recall new words (with increasing speed) is central to language learning and, alongside an ability to pronounce the foreign language well and the ability to put together words and structures into new sentences, it is one of the three essential skills we focus on from Y7.

An intelligence quotient (IQ) is a total score derived from several standardized tests designed to assess human intelligence. The abbreviation "IQ" was coined by the psychologist William Stern for the German term Intelligenzquotient, his term for a scoring method for intelligence tests at University of Breslau he advocated in a 1912 book. Historically, IQ is a score obtained by dividing a ...
